Special Offer to Celebrate Return of Old Time Torrance Automotive Man

"Again to serve you, I'm in business in Torrance," says Fred Palmer in announcing that he has taken over the operation of the service station in his building at the corner of Cravens and Marcellina avenues.

Mr. Palmer will also operate the greasing, battery, and brake service in addition to the gasoline and lubricating station.

"I want to invite the public to inspect the modern facilities I have installed for battery service, brake adjustments, wheel alignments, front-axle alignments, greasing and gasoline service. I'm selling new batteries, tires, Delco and U.S.I., and Fred Palmer, and re-charge run-down batteries."

"I want this next week to be a reunion of my old friendships as well as an invitation to new acquaintances," said Fred, "and for this reason I am offering to give one gallon of gasoline free with each four purchased. This special offer expires with the close of business, Saturday, October 26."

Mr. Palmer is one of the pioneer automotive mechanics in Torrance, having sold out his interests about a year ago. He formerly conducted a group of service stations in Torrance.

This is the saddest of all times for man and for woman too. But there is a way out of this depression. It is not a matter of money, it is a matter of spirit. It is not a matter of what you have, it is a matter of what you are. It is not a matter of how you look, it is a matter of how you feel. It is not a matter of what you do, it is a matter of what you think. It is not a matter of what you say, it is a matter of what you mean.
